Are you proud of your paycheck?

You could be . . . If you mastered Auto Mechanics, a well-paid trade

You have been thinking of improving yourself. You would like to get a technical education, so that you can qualify for a better job and greater security. Why not consider the automotive field, one of America's greatest? Over 7 million cars and trucks are sold each year. These, added to the 57 million vehicles already in use, provide a rich source of rewarding jobs for trained mechanics. The pay is well above average, work is steady and opportunities exist in almost any community.

30 Job Experience Projects Included

CTI lessons are written in simple English and fully illustrated. Thousands have learned auto mechanics through lessons alone. To make it still easier to apply "lesson learning" to actual auto repairing, and to build your confidence, CTI provides each student with 30 Job Experience Projects. This practical instruction will encourage you to begin repairing cars as you train, and earn money in spare time. It will help you get experience.

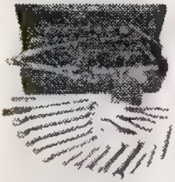
Student letters prove training works

"Have started my own tune-up and brake shop."—G. Gunz, Cal. "Am proud I finished course. Have two job offers."—Barden Vance, Ind. "Am working as a mechanic and earn twice what I used to. Made $25 a week as I trained."—Jerome Slowik, Ill. "Am now a senior auto mechanic. Made $800 during training."—Ronald Wharton, Ind.

Train at home for a better job or your own business

You don't need a formal education or previous experience to master auto mechanics. You can learn at home by devoting a few hours each evening and week-end to training. CTI, one of America's foremost auto training schools, will send lessons that are easy to read and understand. You'll receive tools and instruments, as well as shop projects, to help you gain experience as you learn. You keep your present job and switch to your new occupation when you are ready.

15 KITS OF TOOLS AND TESTING INSTRUMENTS

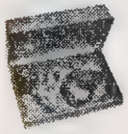


MECHANIC'S TOOLS INCLUDING SOCKET SET AND TRAY

TORQUE WRENCH

VISO-ANALYZER (VOLT-AMPERE TESTER)

CAM ANGLE TACHOMETER



VACUUM GAUGE AND FUEL PUMP TESTER, COMPRESSION TESTER

STARTER CURRENT INDICATOR

BATTERY CELL TESTER

POWER TIMING LIGHT

Testing instruments help locate engine and electrical system troubles quickly, save time and effort. You also get a set of mechanic's tools. Only CTI sends this much equipment.

Many earn cash in spare time

Many CTI students begin repair work before they graduate – some after a few lessons. They report that they save money fixing their own cars. Many do repair and service work for friends. With their profits they pay tuition, sometimes earn enough to build and outfit a repair shop. Full-time businesses often develop this way.

Diesel Mechanics or Body-Fender Repair

As part of your training, CTI also sends instruction on either Diesel Mechanics or Body & Fender Rebuilding. These lessons may add considerably to your earning potential. No extra charge. Only CTI gives you a choice.

Clip coupon before turning page — Be sure to fill out and mail today

Clip out, fill out and mail the handy coupon, or write on a postcard. CTI will mail complete information on opportunities for skilled mechanics; and descriptions of lessons, job experience projects, tools and instruments. These booklets are free. By reading the facts, you can judge for yourself whether you'd like to get into the well-paid secure automotive field. Act today!

- PITCHING
- HITTING

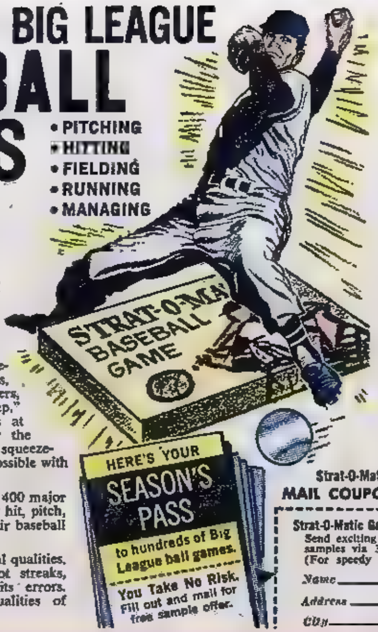
- MANAGING



Easy to play, real thrilling, exciting baseball with STRAT-O-MATIC. 400 big league players perform according to their actual abilities and your managerial decisions. You, the manager, call all strategy moves for all 20 major league teams.

You, the manager, not only decide lineups, insert pinch-hitters, pinch-runners, and relief pitchers, play your infield "in or deep," and make defensive changes at any time, but also call for the sacrifice, steal, hit-and-run, and squeeze-play. All strategy moves are possible with STRAT-O-MATIC.

You have real control over all 400 major league players — who actually hit, pitch, field, and run according to their baseball abilities.

Each player has truly individual qualities. He slumps and goes into hot streaks, performs heroics and commits errors. With STRAT-O-MATIC all qualities of a ballplayer are realistic.

SEND FOR FREE SAMPLE OFFER NOW!

For example, in batting Harmon Killebrew will be among the leaders in both homeruns and strikeouts. Roberto Clemente will be among your batting average leaders, but will hit less homeruns than the average ballplayer.

In pitching, Jim Bouton will display good control, be difficult to hit, but will yield more "gopher balls" than most major league pitchers.

In fielding, Willie Mays will make catches which other outfielders would fail to make. Bill Mazeroski will make fewer errors and take away more would-be base hits than other second basemen. In base running, and stealing also, all players will perform realistically.

The above are just some of STRAT-O-MATIC's highlights. For the entire story, mail coupon for a colorful FREE BROCHURE containing full detailed information and FREE STRAT-O-MATIC SAMPLES. Don't delay. Write today!

—We promise you—cross our hearts—this little adventure will positively end next ish, so you can read our fabulous ANNUAL without having anything to worry about! And now, let's dip into our merry Marvel grab-bag and see what we come up with—

Dear Stan and Jack,

Answer these three questions—who is the most popular Marvel character of the century? Who is the Grand Marshal of the M.M.M.S.? Who has rocks for skin, as well as for brains? The answer to all these burning questions is of course the ever-lovin' Thing! Now here is my gripe. Everyone knows that ol' stone-head has four fingers. Right? Right! So, why in the ding-dong world does he have five fingers on every "M.M.M.S. Wants You!" sticker there is? Don't tell me he grew another finger overnight! If this letter doesn't deserve a super-colossal, extra-fabulous, Marvel-ous no-prize, I'll eat my M.M.M.S. membership card and give the incredible Hulk a do-it-yourself earth-destroyer kit, and paint a mustache on my pinup of the mighty Thor!!

Marty Tuzman, 2840 Ocean Parkway
Brooklyn, N. Y. 11235

Marty, ol' boy, we may have to send you a whole set of no-prizes—with a de-luxe binding! Believe it or not—you are the only frantic fan to notice that bashful Benjy had five fingers on our swingin' sticker! The gang in the bullpen didn't notice it! Our other fans didn't notice it! Our families didn't notice it! Even our competitors didn't notice it! But you—you noticed the biggest bonehead error since the Edsel! We still can't decide whether to be grateful, or never to talk to you again!

Dear Stan and Jack,

Artie Simek, I'm surprised at you! All right, you guys, I've got you dead to rights! F.F. #39 had the worst case of misspelling I have ever seen in any book ! The first case was on page 2, panel 1. On the back of the sailor's shirt was imprinted "U.S.S. Shark." This would have been okay except for the fact that the ship was the "U.S.S. Sea-Hawk"! The other mistakes were page 11, panel 3 where you spelled Gomer Pyle's name wrong; on page 17, panel 1 where you spelled vortex "votex", and as if that wasn't enough, you made the exact same mistake on page 18, panel 1!! Otherwise it was a great issue!

David Olson, 6402 34th Ave. NW
Seattle, Wash. 98107

Ulp! Well, Dave, you've gotta admit one thing—we're consistent!

— By the way, when you receive your swingin' Marvel stationery, don't waste it by scribbling on it! It's much too beautiful! Save it for your most important letter writing! We wish we could see your faces when you receive it — we think it's probably the most original, most amusing pop art creation of the year! And the autographs on back of the portfolio will absolutely knock you out! We kid you not!

Dear Stan and Jack,

What in the name of Benjamin J. Grimm's Aunt Petunia are you guys trying to do to your loyal, trusting mad Marvel friends? First you hit us over the head with an extending story, then you aim a bulldozer at us by pulling Doc Doom and Daredevil out of the clear blue sky. Don't get me wrong now. I'm not complaining. I just think you ought to give us at least a little hint of what you're going to do. One day we are all going to be in the hospital with nervous breakdowns! On the other hand, if you guys did tell us about the new ish beforehand, it would spoil all our fun. As usual I've got myself confused. There is one subject I'm clear on and that is that the F.F. is great, you guys are great, and all Marvel mags are great. While I'm at it I might as well drop this hint. If you want excitement, fun and adventure, join the M.M.M.S.—how's that for advertising?!

Rick Scogin, 6148 Chaffin St.
Houston, Texas 77017

It's great, Ricky! Untruthful, perhaps—but great! Okay, okay—we're only kidding!

THE MIGHTY MARVEL CHECKLIST

A Line-Up Of Some Of The Marvel-ous Mags On Sale Right Now!

SPIDER-MAN #28: Once again Lee and Ditko create a new, daringly different super-villain for Spidey to battle. We promise you'll never forget the unique Molten Man! And watch for the cover itself—truly a modern work of art!

AVENGERS #19: Whatever you do—wherever you go—whatever happens—don't dare miss this one! It introduces a new master menace, in the tradition of Wonder Man and Hawkeye! We guarantee that once you see the Swordsman, you'll be hooked for life—and Cap's quaint quartet was never greater!

X-MEN #12: At last! The long-awaited origin of Professor X—plus the most dramatic introduction of a mysterious new villain that you've ever seen! Stan and Jack pulled out all the stops on this one!

DAREDEVIL #9: A completely different type of adventure for D.D.! He dares to invade a killer's castle in another country, and runs into one of the strangest dangers any costumed hero has ever faced. Also, he finally consents to an eye operation,-and—but why not see for yourself?

THOR #119: This is the issue you've been waiting for, starring the incredible battle between the Thunder God and the more-powerful Destroyer! Filled with drama, action, and startling surprises, it has everything any lover of enchanted pageantry could want!

STRANGE TALES #136: Only mighty Marvel could follow the first fantastic episode of Nick Fury, The Man From Shield" with an even greater second episode! And wait till you see Fury's new hidden headquarters! As for Doc Strange—he's got to learn "What Lurks Behind the Mask?"

SUSPENSE #69: Iron Man battles another new Lee-Heck creation—the Titanium Man, and he's as awesome as you'd expect him to be! As for Captain America, this one has a new twist, as he invades the castle of a real old-time mad scientist! You'll think it's right out of the Frankenstein era!

'ASTONISH #71: Once again you've a chance to cheer and gape in wonder at the brilliant art of Adam Austin who brings Sub-Mariner to his greatest heights of glory! And we can't wait till you see the stupifying Seaweed Man! Meantime, the Hulk is in desperate danger as he faces his gravest decision!

SGT FURY #21: Fury and his Howlers once again invade Hitler's own domain as they dare the impossible in a spectacular effort to free "The Hostages"! If you hate ordinary war magazines, what are you waiting for? This one's for you!

Dear Stan and Jack,

I am happy to report that I buy and save Marvel magazines for two reasons. They will be valuable to many in the future since they're in a class above all others, and they're valuable to me because I like them. To me, at age 21, they're good light reading. (What will happen next month to our bold, dashing, hilariously tongue-in-cheek super-heroes?) I don't think they're merely escapist reading for your moral messages and realistic attitudes toward life may be helping a lot of kids to shape up better although they think they're reading only for the thrills. When you tackle a profound subject, you usually succeed in doing a good, convincing job of it.

So Marvels for me are fun to read and I look forward to them. Marvels are indeed (as your new ad copy says) for the discerning, intelligent reader, the new breed of reader, for these are stories that talk our language. To put it another way, Stan Lee's little morality plays, so vitally illustrated by King Kirby, are "on the side of life." They're written with people in mind, and you treat your readers as though they had heads on their shoulders instead of doorknobs. You care about your readers, respect their views and try your best not to talk down to or insult our intelligence. Vince Colletta is showing increased maturity in his inking of late. Texture is what makes the difference—his fine shading is a thing of beauty. I'm glad you let him ink the whole of THOR #116. It's Kirby-Colletta all the way. This is a creative move on your part. I'm glad to see that Mr. Colletta has found his niche as a valuable contributor to the Marvel Age!

Bill Loudin, 3224 Wesleyan Ave.
Rockford, Ill. 61108

A fine thing, Bill! You catch us off-guard by complimenting us—but then, when we least expect it, you end up with a tribute to Vonderful Vince! Boy! you're almost as sneaky as we are!

—Have you noticed the change in the trade-mark which appears on the left hand corner of our cover? So many of you frantic fans have objected to calling our Marvel mags "comics" that we felt we just had to come up with a better name! And so, from now on, you are no longer reading "Comic Books" when you read our little masterpieces! Instead, you're reading a "Pop Art book"! Remember, from now on, Brand X, Y, and Z are comic books, but when you buy a Marvel mag, you ask for a Marvel Pop Art book! We'll be checking on you, so don't let us down!

Dear Stan and Jack,

I detected a note of sarcasm in Roger Gilman's letter in issue #39 where he wrote, "They (referring to Brand X comics) have taken valiant stands on litterbugging and such stuff—brave bold stands!" Now I think that he is taking entirely the wrong view on this matter, for while I am by no means praising the quality of Brand X's stories, which, as a matter of fact, I think are very low, I do think it is thoughtful to spend a page or two on "such brave bold stands" instead of using it on advertisements or letters pages. I hope you consider this letter controversial enough to be printed. Karl Spence, 9763 Westview

Houston, Tex. 77055

Heck, Karl, if you had your way we wouldn't have a letters page—so how could we print your meaningful missive? Anyway, we want to make all our readers happy, so here's a line just for you—"Hey, dere—knock off that litterbugging, you guys!" See? We can be as public spirited as anybody!

Dear Stan and Jack,

Issue #39 of the FANTASTIC FOUR is the greatest tale you have come up with yet. Frank Ray's inking was very good on Jack's pencils. His one trouble is trying to put too much hair on people's arms, otherwise he is very good. I hope you use him to ink more issues so as to keep some sequence to your work. The F.F. without their powers work very well, and Daredevil fits in well with them. By the way, Jack's handling of Daredevil was very well done—every bit as well as Wally Wood's! I'm glad Doc Doom is back again and out of his trance. It was about time for him to show up.

William McCord, Jr., 2136 Glenwood
Toledo 20, Ohio

We'll tell you a secret if you won't breathe a word, Bill! Wally himself inked the figures of Daredevil in that ish! But, shhhhh—someone may be listening!

Dear Stan and Jack,

Stan, what are you trying to do to me? How can you expect me to wait another month for the outcome of a powerless Fantastic Four against Dr. Doom, when I've already had to wait a month for this issue. You're going to drive me completely out of my head. The suspense is terrible and excellent. Of course I'm talking about F.F. #39. It was marvelous! The cover was great. The title was terrific. More titles in the future like that one, Stan, they really stand out more than the run-of-the-mill titles. The opening page was drawn excellently and written superbly. There were many other great features. One asset was the conversation between the characters. The dialogue seemed crisp and natural, and, skipping to another subject, Jack has improved his photo-drawing pictures to such an extent that it's fantastic. Daredevil is great and I really liked the way you included him in the story. Is his costume red or black? The only thing the issue lacked was that it did not concern itself with the future wedding of Reed and Sue in any way and, of course, that is understandable. But, don't forget that they are supposed to get married! I'll leave you with this one last comment: reading Marvel magazines today means that you're reading the classics of tomorrow. Thanks for the fun and games. Donald McGregor, 35 Sophia Dr.

West Warwick, R. I.

You're welcome, Donny boy! As for the weddin' you're wantin', try to latch onto the great F.F. ANNUAL, on sale early in July! You can't miss it—you'll hear wedding bells coming from between the covers!

—We've already told you that our super-colossal ANNUAL features the marriage of Sue and Reed, as well as two old-time F.F. classics with not one single word or picture changed! And, we guarantee that no magazine, regardless of size, has ever featured as many crazy, cavorting, costumed heroes and villains as you'll find in the FANTASTIC FOUR ANNUAL #3! Watch for it on July 1st—by July 2nd there probably won't be a copy left!

Dear Stan and Jack,

As an avid and faithful Marvel fan I feel that it is my solemn duty to extricate our most glorious writer from his predicament. The problem I speak of is one mentioned by a reader in F.F. #39. She asked what Alicia's last name was, and since you could not answer her, you left it up to your fans. Alicia's full name is Alicia Masters. Now, I know many of you will think that this name is derived from the Puppet Master, which in a way it is. When Alicia was just a small child her father died and her mother remarried a man named Masters. She learned to love her new father but a few months after her mother's remarriage, the new Mrs. Masters was brutally killed. Because of this Alicia's step-father grew to hate the world and became the Puppet Master.

Ta ta ta ta ta taaaa! Kathy wins our latest, largest, loveliest no-prize for supplying adorable Alicia with a last name! And, in case you're wondering why we selected Kathy's name as our winner, the answer is simple—(Or, should we give another no-prize to the one who can figure out why Kathy won? Nah—it gets too complicated!) With our terrible memory for names, it'll be easy to remember Masters—we just have to think of the Puppet Master, and add an "s" to his last name! (Provided we can remember Puppet Master, that is!) Congratulations, gal! Don't let your triumph go to your head!

Dear Stan and Jack,

While writing for a subscription to the FANTASTIC FOUR, I decided to dash off a line to you people who are responsible. I am an English teacher in the high school of our community, and have several issues of your magazines. I especially enjoy the realistic approach of your stories, and the development of each yarn, planting the solution to the problems early in the stories and then using it later. (Or didn't you know you were doing that?) You have literally (and literarily) given the field a new and long needed life—keep it up!

James D. Grosbach, 710 Eason Avenue

We appreciate your noble sentiments, Jimmy! The only thing we like better than flattery is praise! (Oh well, it's been a tough day today!)

—We've only room to say that our next startling ish features a battle you'll never forget, as we wrap up this current adventure in a blaze of glory! And just wait'll you see what happens to—aww, but why tell you now! It's all waiting for you in F.F. #43—the greatest of the Marvel mags—and that means the greatest there is!
